

Objective & Big Idea:

Offers a long range perspective on current or desired trajectory of a participant's most desired contribution to the world.

BIG IDEA: Your contribution is discovered as you discover God's dream for you and design your life accordingly.

How it Works:

First have participants choose a category that best represents their current or desired trajectory of contribution to the world. Then within that category star or circle one (or two if difficult to decide) types that further articulate that trajectory. This does not mean it is the only thing they contribute but rather help to clarify what most satisfies them.

Coaching Tips:

This is another angle of helping the participant understand what stirs them most and what they are most motivated to offer to the world based on what matters to them and brings them life. If a participant is older they are looking back more reflectively, if younger they are looking ahead with anticipation.
