

Six Word Challenge

Legend has it that one day Ernest Hemingway was walking down the sidewalk when a woman came up to him and challenged him to write a compelling story in six words or less. Hemingway took the challenge and later emerged from his study with this six word story — For Sale: Baby's Shoes. Never Worn. In those six short words Hemingway stirred our emotions and stoked our imaginations. To think that so much could be said in such few words is absolutely remarkable.

As we think about our calling statements, we want to issue you a six word challenge. Based on your two words, how would you articulate with stunning clarity your two words to someone else in six words?
